MARKET OPPORTUNITY

Total available market

20% of adults people living in developed and developing countries are chronic procrastinators

Source: 10th Procrastination Research Conference 2017

Serviceable market

34% of procrastination is caused by Time Management and Planning Fallacy

Source: Wolters, Won, & Hussain psychologists 2017

Target share

French procrastinators from 20 to 60 using mobiles willing to change

SUBSTANTIAL MARKET SHARE

Personalization

65% of consumers say they are extremely or somewhat likely to switch brands if they feel like a person rather than a number

Source: State of the connected customers, published by Salesforce

Digital impact

In an era of email, text messages, social media, we're all required to do several things at once. Multitasking and addiction to technology is making people less efficient

Source: Daniel J. Levitin. The Organized Mind: Thinking Straight in the Age of Information Overload

Non-procrastinators

Non-procrastinators would be a natural extension when achieving market acceptance
